Re: Recommendation of bCentral

We have been working with the Managing Director of bCentral (P. O. Box 18569, Manama, Bahrain), Karolline Immanuel, for the last 5 years. Karolline has provided a highly professional service and has tailored her approach to suit our organization and needs. On each occasion the project has been clearly understood, the designs provided have conformed to our brief although creatively they have surpassed our expectations. Additionally, and very importantly, Karolline and her team have never failed to meet the deadlines agreed, no matter how short!

I have no hesitation in recommending Karolline and her team to any organization.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Karolline,

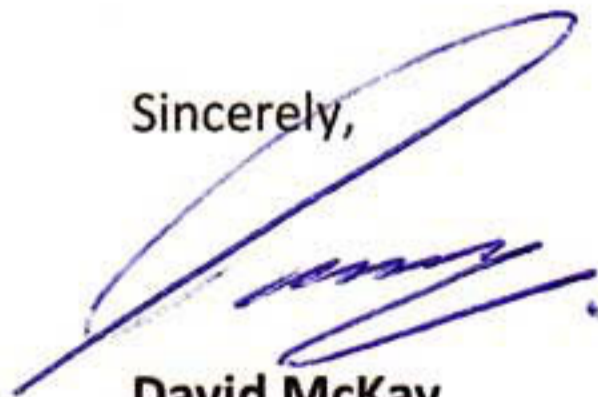

It is not often that we have come across an agency that delivers over and above the brief. We have been very impressed with the enthusiasm and creativity of your team from the very first project involved, and it is refreshing to work with great people who exceed expectations and deliver great results whilst keeping communication channels open at all times.

We know we are by no means the easiest clients to deal with, but thanks to you for managing and accommodating our requirement somehow. We have been extremely pleased with the re-make of our logo and have now rolled it out across our entire organization including all aspects of marketing, business stationery, promotional material and even our company vehicles.

We have found that it has given us a new ethos in relation to the way we sell our services and allowed us to represent ourselves in a professional and corporate manner. We also love the fact that your team knows us so well by now that they can create great ideas from the scraps of information and guidance that we give!

Thank you and appreciate your support.

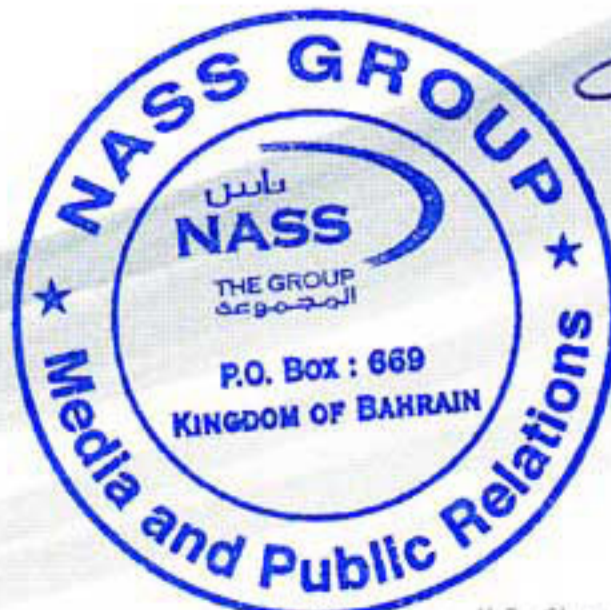

Sincerely,
